
Ole AAKJÆR

Born in Denmark in 1962.

Ole is 55 years old, and that's a perfect age for a solo show with us.

The Danish artist is a hard worker.

Since I met him, I have seen so many fascinating faces, painted with maestria by this master of brushes. His colourful water-colours, in extra sized formats, are unforgettable.

I recall few of them, may be because of their glamorous attitude. Indeed, they remind me the women of Milo Manara. But with Ole, women on top of being sexy, wear bar codes, postal stamps or kabbalistique drawings on their faces and/or bodies.

Then, the strongest memory I have, was 2 years ago when I first saw Ole's women. It was prior the opening of an art fair.

Few days later, Ole pieces were sold out, while most of the galleries were still looking for a first sale.

Ole, in spite of his successes, especially these last 3 years, has remained calm and focus on production of unique serials for his coming shows.

He has so many women he would like to use as a door to our "intimate" world or soul? But a door that does not open fully, even with the girls who are looking at us straight in the eyes! To conclude, Ole has a very strong style, but all his pieces remain unique and bring their own stories. And let's make it clear, the orange noses have nothing to do with vodka or aquavit. I wish we could all be the lucky owner of any of them; but only few will get a chance!
